

Bug List

- There are some buttons on forms in which you must click the text label inside the button to be redirected to the desired location. Basically, there are buttons that are functioning like text links within static rectangles.
- The Forgot Password functionality is not working
- The default homepage jumbotron stock photo is working in development but not in deployment to Heroku.
- Users cannot successfully change their school on the edit account information form.